

ALWAYS WANTING
MORE
LANE TURNER

Breathless, you leave me breathless
Feeling wild and reckless
Never knowing what's in store.

Crazy, you leave me crazy
And nothing can save me
When you walk out that door
Oh, you leave me always wanting more.

You take me where I've never been
It's heaven and it's hell again
The only thing I'll ever know for sure
Oh, you leave me always wanting more.

Questions, you leave me with questions
And constantly guessing
An obsession and so insecure

Love me, and oh, how you love me
And the way that it does me
Is like an addiction without any cure.
Oh, you leave me always wanting more.
You take me where I've never been
It's heaven and it's hell again
The only thing I'll ever know for sure
Oh, you leave me always wanting more.

Searching, you leave me searching
And baby I'm hurting
Cause I'm not what you're looking for
Oh you leave me always wanting more.

You're gonna leave me always wanting
more
