

THEIR HEARTS
ARE DANCING
THE FORESTER
SISTERS

One two three step two three
Whenever they're waltzing
He counts out loud

She tried to teach him
But the rhythm doesn't reach him
So they bounce through the crowd

But oh won't you look at them smiling
Not worried that they're out of time
He steps on her toes as she giggles and goes on
"Cause love is forgiving and kind

Their hearts are dancing to the love song
That's played from the moment they met
Their hearts are dancing

In time with a tune love won't ever forget
Their gold anniversary
He toasted the family

And said, to my sweet wife
Who's made ours a great life
I'm the luckiest one

And though there was no music playing
He reached out and she took his hand
He counted to three as they waltzed he could see
There's still magic in those golden hands

Their hearts are dancing
To the love song that's played from the Moment they met

Their hearts are dancing
In time with a tune love won't ever forget
Their hearts are dancing
To the love song that's played from the
Moment they met

Their hearts are dancing
In time with a tune love won't ever forget
